

Information for participants at DACeL 2010

Food and beverages

During the conference the following will be provided for you:

- 21st of April: coffee and tea at 10.00 and 15.00 hours, lunch, drinks from 18.00 till 19.00 hours.
- 22nd of April: coffee and tea at 10.00 and 15.00 hours, lunch, dinner (during the social event), drinks from 21.30 till 24.00 hours
- 23rd of April: coffee and tea at 10.00 and 15.00 hours and lunch

All breakfasts, dinners and food and drinks outside of the conference times above are at own expense, this is also the case for those who use a free room at the College.

The Netherlands Defense College has a `no-cash` policy. Breakfast and drinks at the bar have to be paid for by `Chipknip`. When you don't have a Dutch bankcard, you can buy a `Chipknip` card of 10 or 20 euro (cash payment) at the Defense College with which you can buy food and drinks.

When you are on a special diet (vegetarian, Kosher, etc) please let us know as soon as possible, so we can try to accommodate the diet.

Cash

In Holland the currency is the Euro. At the Netherlands Defense College there is no ATM, so you have to make sure that you use an ATM on your way in. These are available throughout the Netherlands and at the airports.

Climate

The Dutch weather in April is quite unpredictable. Chances are that it will be 20+ degrees Celsius, but it can also be 10 degrees Celsius, even chances of below zero during the nights. Springtime in Holland means quite wet weather. Given the fact that on Thursday a city walk will take place (45 and 30 minutes) at least a light waterproof jacket and walking shoes are recommended.

You are advised to check the weather forecast before you leave your country.

Technique

The Dutch Defense department uses Microsoft Windows based computers. Please make sure that digital documents or presentations are in a Windows/Microsoft office format, so as few problems as possible will occur. Digital information can be presented by USB-stick or CD-ROM/DVD.

Identification

In Holland every person within the country is obliged to have identification documents with them. This means that you need to have your passport or drivers license on you when you are outside. To get access to the site of the Defense College you also have to be able to identify yourself, so please make sure that the name, with which you enlisted as participant, is the same as in your passport.

Route

The address of the Defense College is: Brasserskade 227A, 2497 NX, The Hague.

clothes before leaving the conference). Friday the dress code is at your own convenience, but service dress or equivalent is appreciated.

ICE

The Defense College does not have their own medical services. In Case of Emergency civil medical services will be used, so travel insurance is necessary. Please make sure you have information about who to inform In Case of Emergency available.